

SOUTHWEST VALLEY COMMUNITY PLANS UPDATE

ENCINO-TARZANA | RESEDA-WEST VAN NUYS |
CANOGA PARK-WEST HILLS-WINNETKA-WOODLAND HILLS

CONCEPTS WORKSHOPS

In the summer of 2017, the Department of City Planning embarked on a three-year process to update the Community Plans for the Southwest San Fernando Valley: Canoga Park-Winnetka-Woodland Hills-West Hills, Encino-Tarzana, and Reseda-West Van Nuys. During that time, the Southwest Valley teams held several initial workshops to introduce the residents and stakeholders in each community to their Community Plans, how they work, the public's role in shaping them, and to receive ideas and comments from each community. Topical Roundtable meetings were also held in the spring of 2018 to continue to receive feedback from community members on specific topics like equestrian issues. The next step in this process of updating the Community Plans in the Southwest San Fernando Valley is to unveil to the residents and stakeholders the conceptual changes to each Community Plan.

Workshops Schedule

Attend a Concepts Workshop in your area this fall. The workshops will feature proposed changes to the Community Plan areas based on feedback received at prior meetings. If you are unable to attend the Concepts Workshop in your community plan area, the workshop on December 6 will include materials for all three (3) community plans.
